Phone rates going up in Kinmount

Basic monthly rates will go up in the Kinmount (488) exchange beginning January 25, 1982, Anne Jenkins, Bell Canada manager for this area, said recently.

Mrs. Jenkins said phone growth in the Kinmount local calling area has pushed the phone-number total above the highest total allowed for present rates.

Basic rates are tied directly to local calling area phone-number totals. A local calling area includes all exchanges the customer can reach via a local call.

Private line residence service will increase by 60 cents a month to a monthly total of $7.60. An individual business line will go up from $16.00 to $18.30 a month. All customers have been notified by an insert with their current bill.

Bell must file with the Canadian Radio-Television and Telecommunication Commission a list of exchanges whose local call phone-number totals have exceeded the upper limits of their rate groups.

Because phone totals can drop as well as increase, totals have to exceed the upper limits allowed by at least five per cent.

Helen Milne was the guest of honour and centre of attention at a party Saturday marking the end of her year-long visit to Minden. Helen is an exchange student from Australia who returns home Friday. Friends from high school and members of the Minden Rotary Club, the sponsoring organization, were on hand for the send-off Saturday at the curling rink.

Library use decreases despite new facilities

Despite the move to the new facility, borrowing activity at the Minden Public Library has decreased slightly according to figures released this week by the Acting Librarian Jeanne Sears.

Her report shows that there were 14,247 items borrowed from the local facility in 1981, compared with 14,883 in 1980. The operation of the library was moved to the new log structure on Bobcaygeon Road midway through the year.

Despite the decrease, the Acting Librarian describes the year as "a very rewarding one for everyone". She pointed out that the move to the new facility provided a boost for the staff and, while the floor space was increased by only a small amount, the lay-out of the shelves had given the area a more spacious feel.

The number of members at the Minden library increased 158 during the past year.

In other statistical figures from the year, it was noted that the library was open 768 hours in 1981, compared to 732 hours the year before. The staff at the facility assisted students with 427 school projects compared with 399 in 1980. They also received 190 requests for material not available at the library. This figure compares with 208 the previous year.

In 1981 18 classes visited the library. During the visits the staff took the opportunity to acquaint the youngsters with the facilities while the younger classes were entertained with story readings.

A number of shows were also presented for children at the library through the year, three of them being provided through the Regional service and several movies by the local committee.

In other activities this past year, the library initiated the Rolling Readers program for youngsters during the summer months. This program was well received with the participants enjoying a party at the end of the program.

The staff of the library also attended a number of seminars.

Borrowing statistics for the facility during the past year include, (1980 figures are indicated by the brackets): adult non-fiction 1532 (1421); juvenile non-fiction 572 (519); adult fiction 9119 (9951); juvenile fiction 1964 (1864); magazines 709 (911); tapes 351 (217).

Blaze destroys home

Fire has destroyed the home of Norm Barry of West Guilford. Monday afternoon the blaze was reported to Dysart et al fire department at 2 p.m. According to chief Howard Roberts, by the time the firefighters arrived on the scene, the home was completely engulfed in flames.

The chief speculated that the fire had been burning for some time before being noticed and the alarm turned in.

The Stanhope fire department was called in to assist the Dysart firemen.

The firefighters were able to protect a number of adjacent buildings including a cottage and barn.

Since the home was destroyed Chief Roberts said it was difficult to determine how the blaze started. He said the fire had started at the rear of the building and worked its way toward the front before being noticed.

The loss is estimated at between $60,000 and $65,000.

The home was located on the Barry Line and Kennis Lake Road.

Two visitors to the Rails' End Gallery examine the workmanship of one of the more than 20 quilts on display. The annual quilt show opened Saturday. For further details, see page 3.

Racing season opens Saturday

The ice racing season opens this weekend as the cars take to the newly prepared track at the Minden Fair Ground.

The event is the first in a series of five which will see two races staged in this community. The second is scheduled to take place during the Minden Linsmen Winter Carnival.

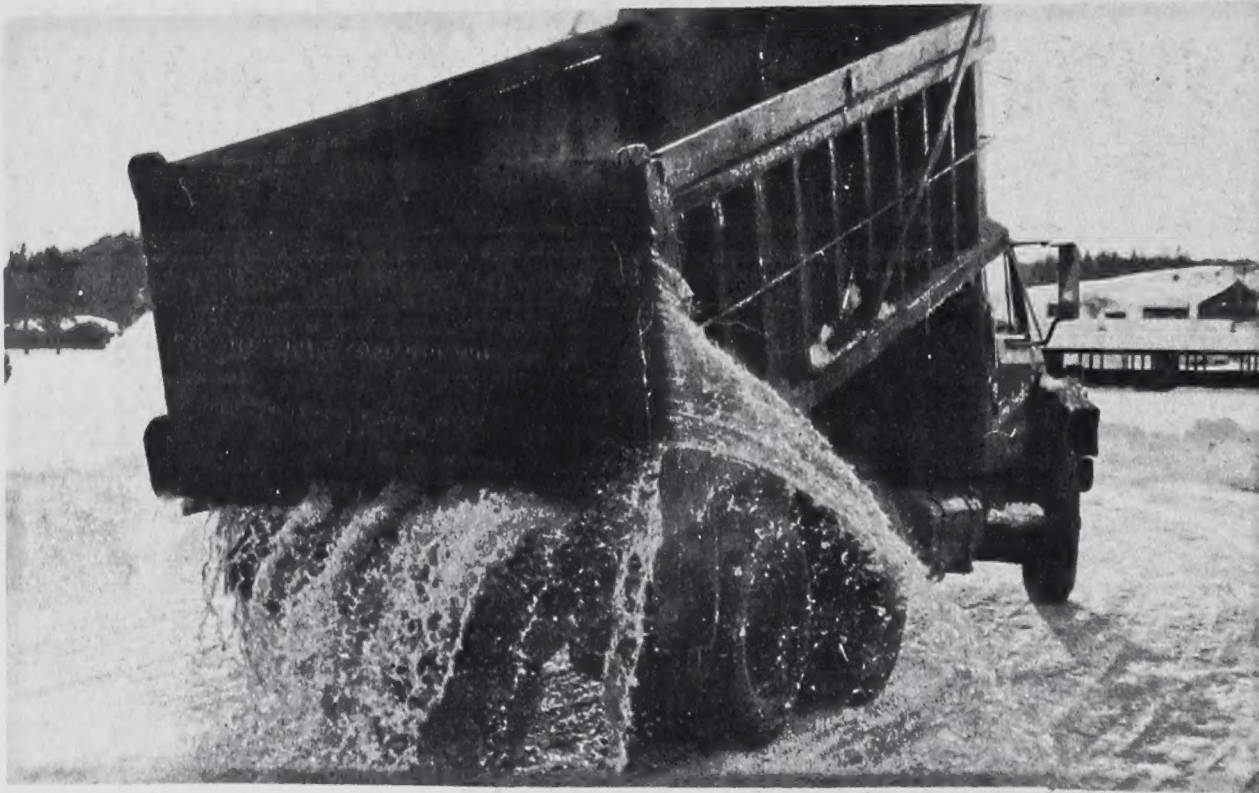

Up to 50 cars are expected for the two days of racing, Saturday and Sunday. Entrants are expected from many points in southern Ontario including Orillia, Mississauga, Oshawa and Kitchener.

The Haliburton Highlands will be well represented on the track as well this season. Racers who will be participating include: Tom and Marg Prentice, Ray Kunkel and John Coneybeare from Haliburton.

The racing facilities are prepared by Tom Prentice through the local Kinsmen Club which then rents the track to the organizing clubs.

Water squirts from the back of a dump truck as it completes a circuit of the ice racing track at the Minden Fair Grounds. The track has been under construction for the past two weeks with a twisting course being traced through the area. The track will get its first workout this weekend when the racing season opens in Minden. A second set of races will be included in the Kinsmen Winter Carnival schedule this year. Spectators are admitted free of charge this Saturday and Sunday.

Prominent citizens pass away

Two prominent members of the Lutterworth Township community passed away recently.

Charlie Plewman, the founder of Kilcoo Camp on the shores of Gull Lake, died December 28 at St. Joseph's Hospital in Peterborough. He was 92 years of age.

Chris Wahlroth, a long time cottager in Lutterworth Township and president of the Moore's Lake Association, died January 6 at Scarborough Centenary Hospital.

Mr. Plewman founded Kilcoo Camp in 1932 and watched the facility grow slowly from a collection of tents to the large and modern boys' camp. Many of the youngsters who attended as campers returned in later years to work as counsellors. Plewman was active in the YMCA and served as president of both the Ontario and Canadian Camping Associations. A former camper and staff member, John Latimer, purchased the camp from its founder in 1956.

Camp alumni celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of Kilcoo late last year at a reunion held in Toronto.

Mr. Wahlroth, a Master Tailor serving the Toronto area, took an active interest in his 'second home' in Lutterworth Township. He served as president of the Moore's Lake Association for many years. He took a keen interest in the operation of the Lutterworth municipality and Haliburton County in general, often expressing his ideas in letters to the council or to editors of local papers.

Both men, though residents of other communities, made important contributions to the history of the area.

Drivers heed warnings - no accidents Sunday

Haliburton County residents heeded the advice of the police and weatherman and stayed off the roads Sunday.

As high winds whipped snowdrifts across county and area roads, and blowing snow reduced visibility to near zero, driving conditions became very hazardous.

However, through the brunt of the severe weather conditions, the Minden OPP report there were no accidents. Those few drivers who did venture out were obviously using extreme care.

The Minden detachment reports there have been 21 reportable accidents so far this year with close to half of that number, nine, involving snowmobiles.

Pair charged following thefts

Two Minden youths have been charged following a series of snowmobile thefts between December 15 and January 6. The machines were taken from cottages, residences and, in one case, removed from a snowmobile retail outlet.

The machines were recovered within a few miles of where they were taken. Some snowmobiles had sustained damage as a result of the theft and joy ride.

Charged by Minden OPP are Randy Earl McNabb (also known as Randy Yeo) and Brett W. Porter. McNabb has been charged with theft over $200 and taking a vehicle without the owner's permission while Porter faces similar charges plus breach of probation.

Five constables are involved in the case due to the number of incidents. They include Wim Magee, Bob Wood, Weldon Popp, Brian Dunham and Al Bibby.

Activity

During the week of January 2 to 10 the Minden detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police investigated the following: 10 reportable accidents and four non-reportable mishaps with three persons injured, non seriously. The police also investigated 47 general occurrences which included 12 parking complaints, four thefts and two lost property occurrences.

Quilts delight the eye

Quilt designs that once warmed the beds of early Ontario pioneers can be seen today warming the walls of the Rail's End Gallery in Haliburton.

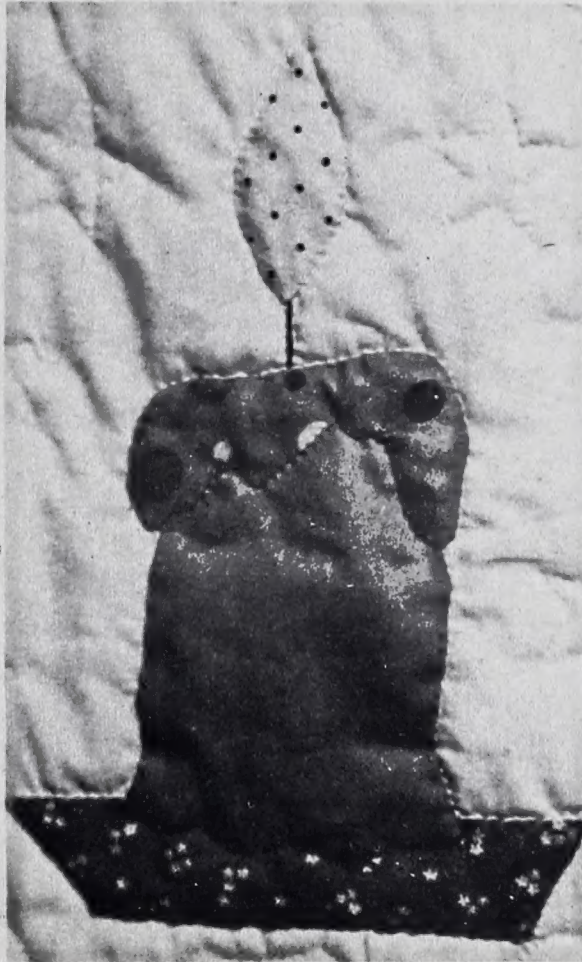

The quilt show opened Saturday at the Gallery with an excellent selection of hand crafted quilts on display. The show, an annual affair, features the work of local quilters. Some of the quilts are the work of groups of ladies while others have been completed by individual quilters.

The quilts display traditional designs, some of which reflect many generations of quilting in Ontario. In some cases the designs could be traced back to Europe. In other instances, the quilters have decorated the work with patterns of their own design or variations on traditional themes.

The display at the gallery is of particular interest because of the number of quilts on display, over 20, and because of the method used to show the work. The quilts are hung on the wall, giving the viewer an excellent overview of the work and pattern, something that is not normally available when they are lying across a bed.

The show is also a competition. This year the event was judged by Eileen Junkin and Margaret Carr, both of the Fenelon Falls area. Winners in the novice division were Margaret Baker of Eagle Lake, first, and Barbara Pierce of Haliburton, second. The Guild of Fine arts quilting circle took first prize in the group effort, while the Fort Irwin Residents quilting group placed second. In patchwork Eleanor Young of Lochlin was first. She was also awarded a first prize in the applique category. Second prize in patchwork went to Muriel Bird of Minden, while Elaine Jackson of Haliburton claimed second prize in the applique section.

The quilts will remain on display at the gallery until January 30.

Association elects new executive

The Haliburton County Farmer's Association has elected a new executive for the coming year. The election was held at the group's annual meeting last week.

Ray Welch of Maple Lake will be president of the organization as it heads into its sixth year of operation.

Welch will be taking over from Dwain Wruth of Lochlin who served for two years.

Elected to the position of vice president was Tim Casey, while Maureen Warburton will serve as the secretary treasurer.

The association also elected six directors for the coming year. They include: Bernie Trepanier for Minden; Randy Warburton for Haliburton;

Terry Blair for Snowdon; Bob Barnhart for Stanhope; Wayne Cox for West Guilford and Blairhampton; and Ernie Hills as a director at large.

The group will be holding its annual banquet Saturday January 23 at the Gelert Gardens Restaurant.

An explanation

We apologise to our readers and advertisers because of the late delivery of THE TIMES this week.

The production of this newspaper relies heavily on the co-ordinated effort of a number of employees and correspondents. As usual, these people were all on the job and things were ticking along smoothly. However, virtually all the information which appears in this newspaper, including these words you are reading now, must pass through a machine known as a typesetter.

This bulky machine with a computer-like screen and all the necessary beeps, clunks and modern-day electronic noises decided Tuesday morning that it was not about to continue functioning. Coax and cajole as we might, the machine would only deliver gibberish.

The situation required a more professional touch than we could provide and so the necessary calls were made to Toronto and a service technician was dispatched post-haste Wednesday morning. By noon the problem was repaired and the rush began to clear the backlog of material which had accumulated in the "in" basket.

It is a wonderful age we inhabit where robots can build cars and individuals can receive television signals bounced off a satellite high over the equator. In a way our electronic typesetter is a part of that age (actually its wizardry is probably somewhat dated now). But, while wonders of the age might have given us great advancements in all fields, when something goes wrong, those of us who do not have the specialized knowledge, or tools, or equipment to deal with the situation can do little but throw up our hands in dismay.

If this had been the era of "hot type" in newspaper production, the problem no doubt could have been rectified with a large monkey-wrench, some bailing twine and a liberal application of elbow grease. However, in this day and age, all that we could do was stare down into the gaping maw of the machine at the diodes and transistors, the memory boards and multi-coloured wires. This was definitely not a place for monkey-wrenches.

In the end, of course, everything is reduced to the human factor. On our part, it is a feeling of frustration and helplessness that our paper cannot be available to the readers when it usually is. And we (humbly) presume, and secretly hope (apologetically) that our readers were disappointed to find this newspaper was not for sale at its usual locations or in the mail box when it usually appears.

Again, our apologies, and hopefully (touch wood) it won't happen again, (at least not on a Tuesday).

by Ron Reid
Federation of Ontario
Naturalists

Most of our birds are fair-weather friends, who flee to more southern climes at the first hint of frost. But a few dozen stick with us through the deepest winter snows, or regard Ontario as a southerly escape from their arctic breeding grounds. For these chosen few, the hobby of bird-feeding has been a boon.

If you are one of the 20-25% of us who regularly feed birds, you know that a flock of hungry birds can go through an incredible amount of seed. In fact, an average feeder consumes 60 pounds of feed in a winter. Many excellent commercial seed mixes are available as a basis for a feeding program, but it is fun to try a few special treats as well.

One of the favourite specialties for chickadees, woodpeckers, and nuthatches is suet. Earlier booklets on birdfeeding suggested that the naturalist should simply hang the skinned carcass of some small animal in the yard, and let the birds hammer away at the frozen fat. However, for those who might feel offended (or sickened) at the sight of a hanging carcass gradually rotting in a sudden thaw, suet presents a considerably better alternative. Fats are especially useful to winter birds, because they provide a concentrated source of energy. Since small birds have body temperatures in the range of 108-110 degrees F, that energy is put to good use.

Peanut butter is another good energy source, but a few words of caution are in order. Don't feed peanut butter without mixing it with crumbs or dry seeds to prevent clogging the throats of small birds. And never feed suet or peanut butter from metal or wire containers, since the freezing metal in cold weather can injure any exposed flesh on visiting birds.

Don't hesitate to try something different. Doughnuts are a favourite of many birds, because of their fat content. Stale cake is preferred over white bread (more nutritious) and pumpkin pie is apparently a great treat for some birds. Dried apples attract blue jays and evening grosbeaks, and left-over Christmas nuts of all varieties will be put to good use by woodpeckers and many other birds. With a little imagination, you can make bird-feeding a hobby that is more interesting for both you and your birds.

Board advises on children's services in the county

by Susan Clements

In this week's column I would like to outline the history and function of the Haliburton County Local Advisory Board on Children's Services (H.C.L.A.B.).

H.C.L.A.B. is an off-shoot of Children's Services Steering Committee (CSSC), which serves the counties of Haliburton, Victoria, Peterborough, and the City of Peterborough. To facilitate the planning and co-ordination of children's services at the community level, C.S.S.C. established advisory boards in each county and the city. Haliburton County was the first area to establish an advisory board.

A public meeting was arranged by the Haliburton County Social Planning Council in January 1981 to give an overview of the work of C.S.S.C., and receive names of individuals willing to work on the advisory board. Approximately forty people attended the meeting, and of those, twenty-seven expressed a readiness to participate. H.C.S.P.C. assigned the volunteers to four groups.

There are nine members of the advisory board representing social services, health, education, justice, municipal politics and the voluntary and consumer sectors. The executive of the board consists of Stuart Baker, Gerald Bain, and myself. In addition, there are three sub-committees; namely, zero to five years, five to eighteen years, and public relations. The chairmen of those committees are Stuart Baker, Belinda Brown, and Gerald Bain. The assignment of volunteers to the sub-committees was based on expressed interest, area of expertise, and geographic location.

After five months of work, H.C.L.A.B. wrote a report expressing the need for the following:

- enhancement of parenting skills
- subsidizes child care services
- self-help groups for teen-age mothers

- provision of information and professional services through a county-wide mobile unit

- employment of a full-time county based social services co-ordinator

- establishment of a monthly reporting survey

These needs were determined as a result of key informant interviews, examination of case studies, examination of written reports on social services in the county, and the comments of service providers, who were represented on the board and sub-committees.

The H.C.L.A.B. report was presented to Children's Services Steering Committee in June 1981. It was reviewed by that body, and at their December meeting, was endorsed by the membership. H.C.L.A.B. members will soon receive the review paper, and will respond.

No honour among thieves

There isn't even honour among thieves any more. At least that seems to have been the situation with one car thief who appeared in Lindsay court in December.

The case began over a year ago in Glamorgan Township. Constable Gary Chapman of the Minden OPP explains what transpired:

On the afternoon of August 23, in the summer of 1980, a Glamorgan township resident, John Edward Reil, parked his 1972 Plymouth in the parking lot of a Haliburton supermarket. A short time later, in front of several witnesses, a youth was seen to throw his suitcase into the car, climb aboard and drive off.

Six days later, on a street in downtown Toronto, the vehicle was found abandoned and inside was the suitcase. It contained full identification. A warrant was issued for the owner of the suitcase, one Derek Paul Gallogley, 19 years old, of no fixed address.

It wasn't until November 6 that Gallogley was located, taken to Lindsay jail and then to Lindsay court. He was subsequently released upon his promise to appear in Minden Provincial Court on December 2. When he failed to keep this court appointment a second warrant was issued for his arrest.

A year later, in December of 1981, Coboconk OPP Detachment officers arrested Gallogley on the outstanding warrant and again he was lodged in the Lindsay jail and subsequently taken to Lindsay court. This time, admitting to the car theft, he pled guilty.

Gallogley was sentenced to 30 days in jail, a one year term of probation and was ordered to pay restitution in the amount of $578.45. This represented the amount paid by the insurance company for repairs to the car and to compensate Mr. Reil for the time he was deprived of the use of his car.

As an explanation as to why he left his identification in the stolen vehicle, Gallogley explained that on the day he had taken the car he stopped at a bar for a quick drink. While he was inside, having left the motor running, a second thief had happened by and relieved him of his stolen transportation.

Snowdon notes

Our December 7 meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Francis. This turned into a pleasant social evening with about 15 members present. We thank John and Rhonda for their hospitality.

Once again we have received cash donations from interested families. We trust these funds will be used wisely for the ultimate improvement of our area.

A Valentine's dance is planned for Saturday, February 13 at Gelert Gardens. Information will be available later regarding tickets etc.

A small donation was sent to the Haliburton County Snowmobile Association from the business members of this group. We hope this will assist them in their trail upkeep costs.

The Snowdon directory

maps are going to be distributed by Steve and Val Loughheed while they are away participating in dog sled races this winter. This probably marks a first in having these maps outside Haliburton County.

As previously mentioned last month, memberships are now being renewed and are also opened to new members who are now interested in joining our group. This membership includes your name on the directory map if you are a business, and a copy of the monthly minutes, which are mailed out. If you are interested in a membership or in coming out to our group, kindly contact Burt Smith at 286-1879 or John Francis at 286-2373. Next month's news letter will only be mailed to those having renewed their memberships.

FROM THE CHAMBER

By Bob Stinson

Haliburton Highlands

Not long ago, the Economic Development Commission advertised for an individual who would be interested in assisting them with their work. They offered only a small salary plus expenses. What they hoped to find was a retired businessman with a lot of expertise who was more interested in finding something constructive to do than making a lot of money. They found that there are quite a number of such people in our community and they had some very worthy applicants.

John Fleming was hired for the "position" and has spent much of his time since then becoming completely familiar with the various avenues of assistance that are open to businessmen who have problems. At about the same time John started, the Ministry of Industry and Tourism introduced a program to create "Small Business Information Centres" through Chambers of Commerce. A manual was developed and workshops set up to provide participants with all the information and direction they could think of to assist small businesses to deal with the problems of coping with today's economy.

John attended the workshop and has the manual that the Ministry prepared. He may not have all the answers, but if there is an answer to your problem he can either obtain it for you or direct you to the people who have it.

Recently John talked to one businessman who was considering a major expansion to his manufacturing facilities, another that had made some unwise financial arrangements and was looking for ways to re-finance what he now had, and another who wanted to know some details about DREE incentives to prepare for the possibility of a designation for this area.

John was able to provide all of them with some worthwhile advice and we hope, that the assistance he is providing, will help to create more development in the county and of course more jobs as a result.

If you have either a problem with your business, or are simply giving some thought to expansion or new avenues of endeavour, give John a call, either through our Chamber office 286-1760, or at home at 457-2263. Your consultations are in complete confidence and your only cost is your time. What could be fairer than that.

Thanks to local businessmen

The Lake Kashagawigamog group and Haliburton Minor Hockey held another of their very successful hockey tournaments over the weekend filling accommodation to capacity and generating a lot of traffic that otherwise would not be in evidence this time of year. These events start in the middle of the afternoon requiring not only a lot of volunteered hours by the organizers but in many cases the co-operation of their employers to allow them the time off. It was suggested during this last event that these businessmen deserve a vote of thanks.

Throughout the year we have a great number of events taking place and most are very beneficial to our economy and the community in general. Local businesses may benefit but they are also called on over and over again to contribute in some way, whether it be through actual dollars, facilities, their time or the time of their employees. Most are very generous in this capacity and the community can thank them best by doing business with them whenever possible. Thanks.

Toronto Sportsman Show

Details of this year's display at the Toronto Sportsmen Show have been decided and the show takes place as usual during March break, from March 19 to 28. We have this year been able to move our location just slightly to give us a corner booth which will provide us with even better exposure.

Members are again being invited to participate this year, but in a slightly different manner. A new back drop will be made up and those members paying a rack fee of $60.00 will have an 8 x 10 colour picture of their establishment displayed, a short description and a rack of literature beside it. Since the literature will not be accessible from the aisle it will cut down on most of the waste that usually takes place from "collectors". Those wishing to also attend the show for 2 days to promote their business will also have their business promoted in the same manner for the duration of the show. The charge for this would be $120.00. A limited number of spaces will be available so members are urged to make their plans to participate shortly.

Downunder diary

Kathy MacGregor is a Minden area high school student who is spending a year in New Zealand as an exchange student. Her visit is sponsored by the Minden Rotary Club and coordinated through Rotary International. Kathy has agreed to share some of her experiences with our readers through the letters and tapes she sends home to her parents. The following are excerpts from a tape received shortly before the holidays.

Down here it is nice and warm, I am getting a nice tan. But I will be white as a ghost when I get home. The people are really nice. I will be moving the day after tomorrow as I change host families. I will be moving to the Jury's. They live just across the river. If I want to go by road it is 15 miles, otherwise it is about 4 miles across paddocks.

School is out, has been for about 2 weeks. I went on a 4th form class trip, equivalent to grade 10, being a supervisor. I was the only female supervisor. I had to keep the kids in line (girls). On the trip was my host sister Gay, host father Bryce (male supervisor) also teacher and another male supervisor. There were 33 kids altogether. We had our hands full. I ended up teaching kayaking. I hadn't been in a kayak for 15 months. I did some rolls. It is nice and warm here.

On the last day we did some tramping (hiking), bush walking. We tramped over the Rumatukas hills. They are hills but they look like mountains to me. They are between the cities of Wairarapa, Featherston, Masterton, Carterton etc. to Wellington, so that they are kind of a barrier. We started at 9:30 in the morning and got to the end at 3:00 in the afternoon. We had walked 25 miles. So we were slightly sore. It was like doing a walk-a-thon. It was terrible. We hiked up hill and down hill, through a tunnel at the top called the summit. There was water in the tunnel which extended for 1900 feet. This tunnel once had train tracks and fell engines used to go over them. Peter Stevens told me about these fell engines and I saw one. It is kind of neat to have someone tell you about them at home and then go and see it. They only used it to go up the one side.

The tunnel is 1900 feet long, 10 1/2 feet high and 14 feet wide and it's all dark with water up to your knees. It is so cold that your legs go numb. It is really scary. You have to walk right in the centre, because if you walk out to the sides there are metal spikes that will gash your leg open.

It was so scary and it was really dark. We just had some torches (flashlight). In the middle of the tunnel you are in pitch black. You can't see the opening at either end, because it was slightly curved. A teacher was walking in front of me with a small day pack on. I took both hands and I clung onto the sides of his pack, just like a crab.

We got through it okay. Behind me I had a line of girls hanging onto me, they said, "Oh yah, Kathy will lead us through" ha ha ha. Really, my heart was beating hard, just dying of fright. It was on Wednesday we took this hike.

Last weekend I went on a Maori-Marae. Maori are the natives of New Zealand. Marae is their church or meeting house. We went in with all the exchange students and we learned all about the Maori. It was really interesting. We learned a number of Maori songs. There is this song Po-Carrie-Carrie Anna. It is a popular song in New Zealand. We learned all the Maori words for it.

The All-Blacks are a rugby team here. They are the national team. They do what is called a haka-hawka, a maori-war dance, which gets the players warmed up before the game. They do this at their test matches (international) meets in front of everyone.

The Springboks are the South African team that came to the United States. The Springboks were here. We had a couple of their support-

Fenelon takes Juvenile tourney

The Fenelon Falls Juvenile team claimed the championship trophy Saturday in a tournament at the Minden arena. The team defeated Oakwood 5-3 in the final game of the one day event.

The Minden team was eliminated from play after losing two games, the first 4-2 to Oakwood and the second to South River, 6-0, in the semi-final consolation series.

One of the more exciting games of the day came in the consolation final as South River edged Uxbridge 2-1. That game went into overtime, with South River claiming the victory after only 55 seconds of play in the extra period.

The Monarchs were hampered in the tournament as they could ice only eight players. It became a tiring experience for some of the players midway through the second contest.

The Fenelon team was presented with the Dollo IGA championship trophy while the consolation champions received the Don Gartshore memorial trophy for their efforts.

Terry Crowe, goalie for the Minden Juveniles, steers the puck to the side as members of the South River team close in on the net. The Monarchs were defeated by the visitors and, as a result, eliminated from further play.

The two Minden goals in the first game came off the sticks of Ivan Ingram and Scot Hamilton. Both goals were scored in the third period. Ingram connected on a pass from Glen Evans and Tim Wood while Scot Hamilton scored with the help of Antony VanLieshout and Evans.

The following is a breakdown of the games during the tournament:

Opening round: Oakwood

4 - Minden 2; Fenelon Falls 6 - Uxbridge 2; Pickering 5 - Bobcaygeon 1; South River advanced to the semi-finals in the championship round on a bye.

Championship round, semi-finals: Oakwood 3 - South River 2, South River advances to the semi-final round in the consolation series; Fenelon Falls 2 - Pickering 1. Finals: Fenelon 5 - Oakwood 3.

Consolation round, semi-finals: Uxbridge 9 - Bobcaygeon 0; South River 6 - Minden 0; final round, South River 2 - Uxbridge 1 in overtime.

tions from associations and concerned individuals.

The Honourable Michael Wilson, chairman of the committee, said last week that he is "overwhelmed" by the public response to the committee after only one day of hearings in Ottawa. Wilson said that it is obvious that the Canadian public welcomes this opportunity to express its views on the budget.

In its first day the committee received representations from the Economic Council of Canada, the Consumers Association of Canada, the Canadian Council on Social Development, and others.

I am encouraged that the Economic Council of Canada has charged that the document tabled by MacEachen November 12 was ers come up here to Carterton. They had a meal here at the Campins with us. There are 5 South African students that are here for another 4 months.

NBC showed some of the worst footage of the riots that took place in New Zealand. It was a shock for me and the people. It also showed the great change that has taken place in New Zealand in the last four months. They had the Springboks tour and then their elections.

New Zealand just held elections last Saturday. They have a 92 seat Parliament. The government needs 47 seats to have a majority. National Party (incumbent) took 46; Labour Party (incumbent) took 44; Social Credit (opposition) took 4.

There are recounts on quite a few marginal seats where the vote difference were as low as 4. It is undecided on Party Standings at present.

massive tax reform masquerading as a budget, a view that I expressed in these columns in my last Report from Parliament.

It is becoming more and more apparent that the Canadian people have no intention of accepting the liberal budget without a fight, and public opposition to the budget is growing by leaps and bounds.

This is the worst possible time for the federal government to increase taxes, and to remove incentives to investment. The Canadian economy is in a recession, brought on by finance minister MacEachen's abortive attempt to fight inflation by holding interest rates at an excessively high level.

Business and farm failures are at their highest rate in our history, and layoffs in our major industries are occurring almost daily. It is a time when the government should have brought in a budget designed to stimulate the economy, but it did just the opposite.

So far Mr. MacEachen has refused even to put his budget before a Parliamentary committee for clause by clause scrutiny, and we in the Progressive Conservative party believe that it is because the publicity generated by such a committee study would prove too embarrassing to the government.

The PC caucus committee will allow those people and associations who have been denied an opportunity to appear before a Parliamentary committee a chance to air their views publicly on the budget.

Hopefully, when Mr. Clark lays the committee's findings before Parliament later this month the government will be persuaded to yield to public pressure and withdraw the budget. There are too many indications that the drafting of this budget was left to bureaucrats in the department of finance, people who seem to be far removed from the realities of everyday life and the problems of the average Canadian taxpayer.

Another positive move on the part of the government after Parliament re-convenes would be the replacement of Allan MacEachen as minister of finance.

Robinsons tops in Hi - Lo

Ron Robinson, Jr. and Marlene Robinson were named champions in the zone Hi-Lo tournament rolled Sunday at the Carnarvon Lanes. The pair bowled a 227 to take the top honours.

The Robinsons received a digital watch-pen each for their winning efforts.

Runners-up in the tournament were Melba Scott and Bill O'Brien who bowled a 210. They received electric carving knives. Ev Stata and Laura Carnegie were in third place with a score of 89. Their prizes were bread serving trays. Loretta Henderson and Ruby Francis scored 48 to place fourth in the competition. They were presented with glass cheese servers.

The Robinsons now advance to the provincial finals which will be held in Barrie. The top prize in that competition is an all-expenses paid trip to Florida.

Novice

The Oakwood Novice team defeated Minden 6-1 in a game played Friday evening in Oakwood. The lone Minden marker came from Robie Ackerblade, unassisted.

In a second Novice game played Sunday afternoon in Beaverton, the Minden squad lost a close 5-4 contest. Robie Ackerblade scored three of the team's four markers. David Lee, Kevin Buchannon and Aron Hie assisted on two of the goals while the third was unassisted. David Lee scored Minden's fourth goal.

Pee Wees

Scott Russell scored the only goal for the Minden Midgets as they went down to a 10-1 defeat at the hands of Fenelon Falls. The game was played Thursday in Minden.

Russell was the sharpshooter during the weekend also as the team took part in the Alcide Carpentier Pee Wee Tournament in Haliburton. He scored all four of the team's goals in the two games played. In the first, the Minden squad defeated Leaside 3-2. Russell earned the first star of the game nomination for his hat-trick. Tom MacLeod was named third star.

In the second tournament game, Haliburton defeated Minden by a 6-1 margin. John Wells and Tom MacLeod assisted on that effort. Gordie Wood was named second star of the game.

The schedule

Friday, January 5 - 8 p.m.: Newcastle Juveniles at Minden.

Saturday and Sunday, January 16 and 17: the annual Pee Wee hockey tournament in Minden. Play starts Saturday morning at 9 a.m. and continues through Sunday. Teams are expected from Haliburton, Bobcaygeon, Beaverton, Lindsay, Creemore, Powassan, Bewdley, two from Oshawa, Peterborough and two from Cobden are expected to take part in the event. Get out and support our team.

Huskies lose to Penetang 7 - 5

The Haliburton Huskies dropped a single game on the weekend as they went down to a 7-5 defeat at the hands of Penetang. The game was played Friday in Penetang.

The game scheduled for Sunday evening at the Minden arena had to be called off when severe weather conditions made travel too treacherous. Gravenhurst was to have been in town to meet the Huskies. No word has yet been received as to when that game will be played or whether Minden fans will have a second chance to see the Huskies in this arena before the season closes.

In the Friday game, the Huskies got off to a promising start scoring three goals in the first period to Penetang's single. Dave Nicholls opened the scoring for Haliburton on a pass from Ron Yake and Tim Davies. The next two markers belonged to Davies with Yake and Nicholls picking up the assists on both efforts.

Penetang was able to tie the score in the second period as they scored two goals.

Four more for the hosts in the final frame gave Penetang the game even though Haliburton managed another two before the final buzzer. Ron Yake scored from Nicholls and Davies and finally, Nicholls from Scott Arbuthnot.

The Huskies travel to Bracebridge Friday evening for an 8:30 game and then play host to the same team Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at the Haliburton arena.

Unionville claims Pee Wee title

Unionville claimed the 'A' grand championship and Oak Ridges the 'B' grand championship Sunday during the Alcide Carpentier Pee Wee hockey tournament Sunday in Haliburton. The three days of hockey saw 16 teams taking part.

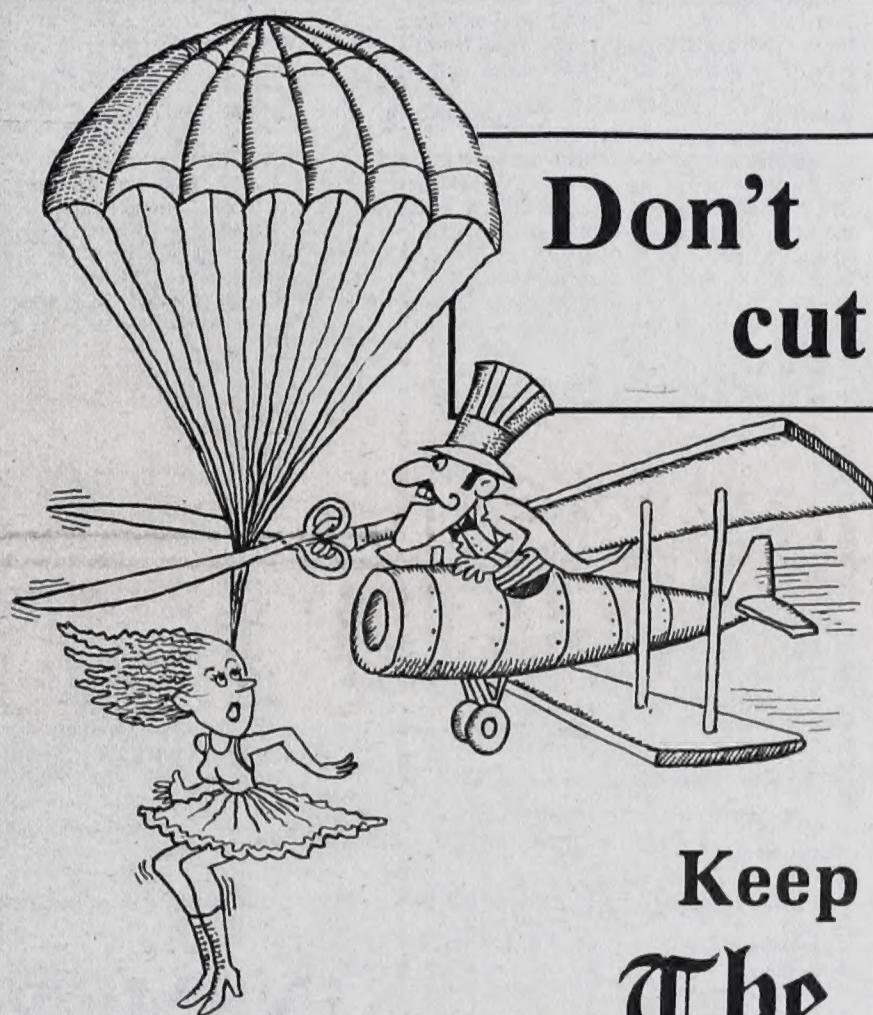

The Minden entry won its first game by a 3-2 margin, but was defeated in the second game 6-1 when they faced Haliburton. The Haliburton team had defeated Keswick 4-3 in their opening game.

The host team went on to defeat Bancroft to claim the 'B' championship and were defeated by Oak Ridges in the grand championship play-off.

Darryl Goodall of Haliburton was named the best goalie in the 'B' division while Erin Nicholls claimed the most valuable player of the 'B' series award. Other trophy winners in that series included Jason Cairns of Oak Ridges named the best forward; Marcus Rulli, also of Oak Ridges, top defenceman.

Members of the Hartwick Construction team, white sweaters, surround the Hall's Insurance net during a Men's Recreational Hockey League game Monday evening. The teams battled to a 4-4 tie. In the second contest of the evening, Home Hardware defeated the Rockcliffe Foam Blowers 9-4.

A wedding and interesting reunion took place recently in Lochlin where Duane Lewis and Heidi Hall exchanged vows. The couple, right, were married in Homewood Acres Senior Citizen's Home. The wedding took place in the home in which the present Reeve of Snowdon township and his wife were married thirty years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vick, left, were guests of honour at the gathering. Also in attendance was the man who built the homestead and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Moss Minaker, centre. The home is located across from the Lochlin General Store. The groom is the son of Kenneth and Martha Lewis of Haliburton. The bride is the daughter of Charles Hall and Dolores Hall, the director of the senior citizen home.

Ray Welch of Maple Lake was elected President of the Haliburton County Farmers' Association at the annual meeting last week. He succeeds Dwain Wruth of Lochlin who completed a 2-year term as Association President.

Tim Casey of Haliburton was elected Vice-President and Maureen Warburton of Haliburton is the new secretary-treasurer.

Six directors were elected. These are: Bernie Trepanier for Minden, Randy Warburton for Haliburton, Terry Blair for Snowdon, Bob Barnhart for Stanhope, Wayne Cox for West Guilford and Blairhampton, and Ernie Hills as director at large.

The Haliburton County Farmers' Association have now completed five years of activities. A number of activities are held each year in addition to monthly information meetings for the members. The next major event will be the Annual Banquet which is being held on Saturday, January 23 at Gelert.

Robin Parish, #1, Woodville, will be the area councillor for the coming year.

All of the 1981 Directors will continue to serve in 1982.

Enrolment up at Colleges

Enrolment at Ontario's 22 colleges of applied arts and technology has reached a record high of 103,806 full-time students, up 3.1 per cent from 1980. Contributing to that increase is a 10.1% boost in full-time student population at the campuses of Sir Sandform Fleming College.

The new provincial high was recorded despite a 12.1 per cent drop in students attending federally funded adult training classes and a 4.4

per cent decline in federally funded full-time instruction for registered apprentices. Registration in provincially-funded post-secondary programs jumped 6.5 per cent and there was a 2.0 per cent hike in full-time enrolment in short programs.

Registrations of part-time students increased to 600,122, up 4.5 per cent over last year. At Sir Sandford a drop of 7.7% was noted in part-time students.

In recent years an increasing proportion of full-time students have been enrolling in business and technical courses. Since 1976, enrolment in business courses has increased by more than 75% and enrolment in technology courses has jumped more than 50%. Full-time enrolment at the colleges has increased nearly 40% over the past five years.

News from THE COUNTY TOWN

by Yvonne Guida

Dear Readers:
Greetings! I hope the first week of 1982 was a good one for you.

Coming Events - On Friday, January 22, there will be a free movie for children shown in the Common Room of the New Cultural Centre, from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m., and on Monday, January 25 there will be a free movie for adults from 2 to 3 p.m.

Some Senior Citizens of the Hyland Crest Senior Citizen's Home, namely Doris Vaughan, Hugh McEachern and Herbert Shorter are celebrating birthdays. A big happy birthday and many happy returns to you all.

Mrs. Lilly Hogg spent Christmas with Howard and Clara Hogg in Parry Sound, and New Year's with Taylor and Phyllis Hogg in North Bay.

The Times would welcome news about sightings of unusual birds in the area that are not winter birds. Everyone get out the binoculars!

I regret to inform my readers of the death of Christopher Wahlroth after a lengthy illness at Scarborough Centenary Hospital on Wednesday, January 6. Mr. Wahlroth was a well known cottager at Moore Lake, and was President of the Moore Lake Cottager's Association for some years.

The Mini Card Party winners for this week at St. Paul's are as follows: Cribbage, High on a Cut - Nettie Wilson, Lower, Cora Hewitt, Euchre, Lone Hand - Ida Holmes, High, Verna McDonald and Low, Alice Todd.

Mr. Joseph Lahay passed away this week. He is survived by a brother, Wilfred of Minden, and family in Ottawa.

There will be a Deanery Prayer Breakfast in St. Paul's Parish Hall, with Bishop Desmond Hunt on Saturday, January 16 from 8 until 10 a.m. The breakfast is 2.50 per person. All are welcome.

Our Lady of Fatima will be hosting the Ecumenical prayer service on Thursday, January 21 at 7:30 p.m. All are invited to attend.

A visiting missionary from Africa will spend the afternoon and evening at the United Church in Minden on Monday, January 18. A pot-luck supper is planned.

A community shower will be held at the United Church on Wednesday, February 3, 7:30 p.m. for Bess and Fred Cox whose home was destroyed by fire late last fall.

The Women's Institute will hold a meeting at St. Paul's, on Wednesday, January 20 at 2 p.m. All ladies are welcome.

Mr. Fred Hewitt and children from Scarborough, spent last weekend with his mother, Mrs. Ern Hewitt of Minden.

If any of you have a favorite recipe you would like to share with our readers, please send it in. The following is one that my family and friends seem to enjoy.

Cherry Cheese Pie
1 - 19 oz. can of unsweetened cherries drained (reserve juice); orange juice; 1 pkg. cherry jello; 1 4 oz. pkg. cream cheese; 1 bakes pie shell; whipped cream. Combine cherry juice and orange juice to make 1 1/2 cups, in a saucepan, and add pkg. Jello.

Hi! That was some wild weather on Sunday. A good day to stay home relax and read. Even some of the highways were closed because of the high winds and drifting snow.

Heard that the ice fishermen in the area are having good luck.

Sorry to hear Frank Dunsford is feeling under the weather in Minden Hospital. Sure hope he will be up and about soon.

Don't leave your -pets outside too long in this cold weather, as they can get frost-bite too.

Rick, Pam and Jocelyn Dunsford from Fenelon Falls were up visiting in the area over the weekend.

The cross country skiing class in Haliburton, on Sunday was cancelled as only one person showed up because of the weather.

Drivers of snowmobiles and cars, PLEASE watch out for each other. It is hard to stop quick when a snow machine comes out from behind a snow drift, and there have been quite a number of machines driving around over the weekend.

Hint of the Week
For frozen fish: Thaw fish in milk. The milk draws out

Stir and bring to boil. Remove from heat and let chill in refrigerator until slightly thickened. Soften cream cheese with 1 table-spoon milk and line the baked pie shell with mixture. Add cherries to the Jello and pour into crust. Chill until firm. Garnish with whipped cream.

The Mountain
Ah God, would that I might be Icy, impenetrable as she,
Secure in lofty majesty,
Alone, untouched by human hurt.
And endless battle with despair,
No, naught will mar her haughty brow,
Her steadfast gaze at empty air.

Yvonne

My wife says, "Why do you always start your letter about church, or Sunday night? Isn't there some other topic you could start to write?"

Well, we have a fellow here who really likes to eat. One day, he thought he would order for himself a little treat. He asked for onion sandwiches, with cheese and sliced tomato. The waiter misunderstood him, and served him fried potatoes. Then we have a lady, who always looks so pert - some days she wears a lovely gown, then others, blouse and skirt. This is what she ordered, when she sat down to dinner - a nice piece of well-cooked pork, without any rind, and a potato baked right in its skin. Also for a beverage, a small glass of gin.

Now, I will tell you of the service Sunday night, of the ones who do their parts, and always do them right. Harold Thompson read the lesson and also led in praying. Mrs. Thompson helped in singing and also did the playing. Then Rev. Burgess' turn comes next. He always has for us, a real interesting text.

Monday afternoon, the ladies made things hum. I must tell you about Mrs. Plum. Now here is a lady with just one good hand. Yet she is doing picture painting, which is just simply grand.

Tuesday morning, Mr. Elliott held a nice communion service in the chapel here. Our girls came to sing, and play. They are so sincere.

Tuesday afternoon, Bingo in the auditorium where some play there every week and win a goodly sum.

Ted Carr, who plays in all events came home yesterday, with goodly haul, of fifty cents.

Tuesday night is music night, here at Hyland Crest. Earl and Cathy came again, we are really blessed. They're very welcome guests. They played square dance, round dance, also heel and toe. Then Kathy played the accordion, and we sang Christmas carols, until it was time to go. We thank you both for coming here to entertain and will look forward to the time, when you come back again.

Wednesday night was games night in the auditorium, where I both lost and won.

The ladies from the Minden region, but belong to the Haliburton Legion, put on a nice tea party on Thursday afternoon. Thank you, ladies, for coming. May you come back real soon!

Fun and Fitness Friday morning, where they put you through your paces - in fact I exercised so hard, I busted my good braces.

Friday afternoon is sing-song time again in 1982. Mrs. Coburn and Fred Ballard came as they always used to. It really is quite nice to see them both appear, for we haven't seen them since sometime last year. Mrs. Coburn read some humorous poems, and led us in the singing. Fred Ballard played the music - much pleasure they are always bringing.

Can you say, in parting with the day that's slipping past,

That you've helped a single person, of the many you have passed?

Is a single life rejoicing over what you did or said

Does someone, whose hopes are fading now with courage, look ahead.

Until next time.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to thank everyone who sent cards and phoned after my Christmas Eve "episode". The cards and calls really lifted my family and myself over a kind of disrupted Christmas. Particular thanks to Bob and Bev Wood, Dr. Lodenquai, Betty Harrison and Laurel Austin of the Minden Hospital. Special kudos to the ambulance crew of Dwight Thomas and Rob Luke who are not only very professional but awfully patient with an awful patient. Thanks again to everyone.

Mike Maher

I would like to thank nurses and staff of Haliburton Red Cross Hospital for their kindness and care shown to me during my stay in hospital. Special thanks to Dr. Hartwick and to friends and neighbours who sent me flowers, visited and for phone calls.

Vera Bagshaw

CARD OF THANKS

To Ken Fielding of Dixie Lee Our hearty thanks. Ken served us at our apartment a Christmas Banquet for 30 persons from tablecloths to serviettes. Succulent chicken, baked potato, 2 vegetables, all piping hot, a delicious coleslaw, rolls and butter and all the trimmings. Dessert was apple pie and ice cream. Truly a festive meal. Our belated thanks Ken, with best wishes for a happy and successful 1982.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our two sons, Alvin Carl who died accidentally January 16, 1964 and Myles Ellwood who was killed October 11, 1968.

Your memories are our keepsake
From which we'll never part
God has you in his keeping
We have you in our heart.
Many a silent tear is shed
While others are asleep
We loved you both so dearly
The bond between us was so deep.
Please God take this message
To our darling sons above
Tell them how we miss them
And give them both our love.

Always remembered and
sadly missed by Mom, Dad, brothers and sisters.
